

PAROCHIAL HOUSE,

KILMIHIL,

PHONE: KILMIHIL 25.

CO. CLARE.

8.8.77

Dear Sister Zacharias

You stole a march on me in Kilmihil by your unheralded visit on 25 July.

I understood you would ring from Limerick to say when you were coming & we would all be on the spot to welcome you.

Actually the Hickey you are interested in came from the townland of Shyan. The house & farm is now occupied by Sister Callinan & his wife ^{& family} of 3 sons & one daughter. Sister Callinan's mother was a Hickey & that house was for generations the home of the Hickeys.

They were extremely disappointed that you came, or should I say stole in & away unannounced & you so to speak missed the Bmo completely. If you are still interested write to ~~Mr~~ Mr Fin Balleran; Stryan; Kilmihil Co. Clare.

Fin could show you the Hickey grave & tombstone in Kilmihil Cemetery & old photos etc. of the Hickey. It was your own fault that your visit was such a flop!

With every prayerful good wish,
Yours sincerely in Christ
(W. Rev) Patrick Baron Stuart P.P.

Thanks for note mass Abbey C.D.