

SURE SHE DOES

My granddaughter, Stephanie Kohls, was about four years old and was sitting on my lap as we watched an old Western Movie. The cowboys were chasing the bad guys and shooting their guns up in the air. Stephanie interrupted the excitement saying, "they shouldn't shoot their guns up in the sky. They might shoot Jesus." when she saw me trying to stifle my laughter she looked disgustingly into my eyes and said, "You don't even care about Jesus."
