

WAS 31 YEARS OLD

Tragic events enfolded the three daughters of the Flynn family recently, Theresa Flynn, youngest, in childhood play, was badly injured last summer by falling down a hay chute in the barn, but recovered after months of treatment. Her sister, Miss Elizabeth Flynn, a school teacher, is now recovering from devastating results of injuries in an auto accident at New Years time. Sister Cyril, the eldest, would have been 31 years old in May had she lived. Her sudden departure from life seems the epitome of tragedy in this happy loving family of eleven children. Besides the parents and two sisters above named, Sister Cyril is mourned by seven brothers, six of whom served as pallbearers at her funeral. The brothers are Emmett, Harold, Raymond, Leonard, Robert, Donald and Roland Flynn.

Mar. 1934