

LETTER

Jordan, Minn
Jan. 27, 1914

Dear Mamma –

How are you all in there? Lonesome I suppose.

I received that cap, it fits fine and looks dandy. I sold my furs yesterday to Mrs. Nick Pauly and received more than I expected and two more rats today.

When are you coming home? Soon I hope for its rather lonesome here now. That lady in the woods still hangs gabbing on the line.

How are Rob and Bina? Bea is going to New Prague tomorrow to have her tooth crowned. Well there is no more news and I have my lessons all prepared for tomorrow so I guess I will close with love to Bob and Bina and abundance to yourself.

I remain as your loving young son.

Thomas Francis Michael Ryan

We are all fine don't worry but answer soon.
