

PHIL COULTER

6th Feb. '07,

Dear Sister Zachaenus,

A little bird tells me that you haven't been in the best of health lately (Actually it was two little birds - in the shape of John and Mary Scanlon!)

This note is just to send you greetings and best wishes from Ireland. I know God will give you the strength to cope with whatever health issues may arise and the serenity to cope with all.

Keep smiling,
Love, Peace and Tranquility,

Phil Coulter
